ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

4TH ANNUAL FRIENDS OF

Jack Miner
GOLF TOURNAMENT (2025)

MISSION

The Jack Miner Migratory Bird Foundation is dedicated to the conservation legacy of Jack Miner offering a sanctuary for migratory birds in a natural, educational, heritage environment for the benefit and enjoyment of current and future generations.

PAST & PRESENT

- The foundation was established in 1931 in the United States and 1936 in Canada to continue the conservation legacy of Jack Miner.
- The Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation (892360462 RR 0001) that operates solely on grants and through the generosity of private and corporate donors.
- The Board of Directors and staff are responsible for the ongoing operations of the Foundation.
- Today, the Sanctuary consists of over 400 acres of sustainably managed land.
- The foundation is committed to developing relevant educational experiences, while remaining dedicated to the preservation of Jack's legacy of conservation and protection of the Sanctuary's rich ecological habitat.

SUPPORTING JACK'S SANCTUARY

The Jack Miner Migratory Bird Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation that operates solely on grants and through the generosity of private and corporate donors. All proceeds from Friends of Jack Miner Golf Tournament will go toward offsetting the Sanctuary's operating budget.

All sponsorships are fully receipted.
