Jack Miner
GOLF TOURNAMENT (2026)

MISSION

The Jack Miner Migratory Bird Foundation is dedicated to the conservation legacy of Jack Miner offering a sanctuary for migratory birds in a natural, educational, heritage environment for the benefit and enjoyment of current and future generations.

PAST & PRESENT

- Established in 1931 (U.S.) and 1936 (Canada) to continue the conservation legacy of Jack Miner
- Operates as a registered Canadian not-for-profit (892360462 RR 0001), funded through grants and private and corporate sponsorship
- Governed by an active Board of Directors and supported by dedicated staff
- Programs and events made possible through a strong volunteer network and community partners
- The Sanctuary now protects 400+ acres of sustainably managed habitat
- Committed to preserving Jack Miner's legacy while delivering relevant conservation and educational experiences
